WHO IS LEADING YOU? (1)

Romans 8:14-17; John 10:1-18

One key distinguishing mark of a child of God is how well he/she responds to the leading of the Spirit of God. [Romans 8:14] Your first responsibility as a child of God in relating with the Spirit of God is to follow His leading.

One key secret of the success of Jesus' ministry was that He followed the leading of the Spirit.

If Jesus was led by the Holy Spirit to execute His earthly assignment, then that is a pattern and a standard we must emulate as sons and daughters of God. Your safety as a Christian is directly connected to your ability to yield to the leading of the Holy Spirit.

PRAYER

Holy Spirit, from today, I surrender totally to your leadership

WHO IS LEADING YOU? (2)

Luke 3:21-22; 4:1; John 5:19; Romans 8:14

It is very important to understand that God always leads His people from the front, whether individuals, families or church. Your leader in any sphere of life matters a lot.

Before commencing His ministry at the age of 30, Jesus, though the Son of God, refrained from performing miracles. Instead, He awaited the arrival of the Holy Spirit.

As a believer, you need to constantly ask yourself, “who is leading me currently?” Answering this question personally, is key to navigating life in the kingdom because following the right leader is fundamental in getting the right kind of result.

and follow right leaders at all times

WHO IS LEADING YOU? (3)

2 Corinthians 5:7; Jeremiah 10:23

No matter how intelligent you are, you can't direct yourself when it comes to the critical matters of life - you actually need God's leading.

The devil is always in the business of making you believe that you can direct yourself. He knows that if you take the direction of your life from the hands of God, you're a cheap prey for him to deal with.

God said in His word that it's not in our place to direct ourselves or direct our steps. Regardless of how many mistakes you have made in the past, to know the next step you need to take, you need to consult God.

Learning to follow the Holy Ghost will lead you to a place of honour and dignity in this world. It will lead you to the thing that God has prepared and reserved for you.

Don't be a peripheral Christian. You must master how to live by faith and how to be led by the Spirit. If you can master these two, you will definitely be able to get through every other issue in life.

If you know how to be led by the Holy Spirit, you will know who you should or should not marry, where to work, what kind of work to do, what kind of investment to get involved in, when to travel and when not to travel.

Acts 13:2-5; Acts 8:29-39; Acts 16:6-9

Identifying and following the right leader at all times is very crucial. The apostles in the book of Acts allowed the Holy Spirit to lead them as explained below:

- The Holy Spirit guided the selection of two leaders (Paul and Barnabas) and commissioned them to preach the gospel in Salamis.
 - The Holy Spirit guided Paul and his team to Macedonia despite their desire to go to other regions.
 - The Holy Spirit led Phillip to minister to the Ethiopian Eunuch.

2 Peter 1:19

In instances of conflicting leadership where uncertainty persists about your spirit's guidance, turn to the Holy Spirit.

If uncertain about accessing guidance from the Holy Spirit, seek counsel from the Anointed. God has established a hierarchy of divine leaders for His people and understanding this hierarchy is crucial.

On any matter of life, always ensure that your decisions and choices align with God's word. God won't convey anything contrary to His word. The written word of God tells you the mind of God as far as human life is concerned and it holds supremacy.

2 Peter 1:19

Every human being is made up of a body, soul and spirit. The body (flesh) can lead a person but there is a limit to the extent that the body should lead a person.

The mind can also lead a person as it is the centre of thoughts but it could mislead one especially when it comes to spiritual and sensitive matters.

Your recreated human spirit is higher than your mind but not higher than the Holy Spirit within you. When you need to make decisions on sensitive matters, you will need to consult the Holy Spirit who is superior in hierarchy to your body, mind and recreated spirit.

When dealing with a matter and you possess the word of God, let it be the guiding force. If your heart lacks clear direction, consult what God has said on the matter.

The primary relationship between us and the Holy Spirit is one of leadership. Although many perceive the pastor's role as primarily feeding the flock, leadership takes precedence; you cannot feed a sheep that does not follow to the pasture.

BEWARE OF THE IDOL IN YOUR HEART (1)

Ezekiel 14:1-9

Nowadays, you see many that have taken their lives from the Holy Ghost. They want to be totally in charge of their lives not minding the consequence of such action.

In this current age and time, it is quite difficult to differentiate between a believer and an unbeliever because they both seem to crave after things of the world.

Believers are supposed to listen to and apply God's counsel. We are a people with a leader. Don't follow people who are following their brains and their intelligence; follow God because it is Him alone who can lead you to the place of true peace and rest.

BEWARE OF THE IDOL IN YOUR HEART (2)

Hebrews 4:12; Ezekiel 14:1-9

Some people go to God saying, “oh God, talk to me”, but God will reply, “you are deceiving yourself, you can't deceive me”.

The idol Ezekiel speaks of is not a shrine but the idol of your (personal) opinion. Many people today have already planned what they're going to do. They've got their minds made up.

Often times, when they seek opinion either from God or His servants, it is just to fulfil all righteousness and not because they really want to apply what they will be told.

If you're ever going to get God to talk to you, you must go to Him in sincerity.

If you're going to get divine direction from the Lord, it is better for you to come plain with what is in your heart already.

Idols in your heart will not allow you to connect with God effectively. Remember, no man can serve two masters. [Matthew 6:24] When you submit your heart and will to God, He will surely guide you to the place of safety. Beware of idols - they are destroyers.

Just as the governor of a State goes out with an entourage, God also goes out with heavenly entourage. When God came in the Old Testament, He came with an entourage of angels, two of which are called goodness and mercy.

In our text, when David said, "The Lord is my Shepherd," what he meant was, God is the being he is following.

The truth we must understand as believers is that goodness and mercy do not just follow anybody; they follow the Lord and as many as follow the Lord, the Lord will ensure that goodness and mercy follow them.

You must take note of the fact that every other channel of spiritual leadership – your spirit, the Holy Ghost, the anointing, the anointed, prophecies, the calling, angels, counsellors, visions, etc. – must align with the Word of God.

SUBMIT TO HIGHER AUTHORITY (1)

Romans 13:1-5; 1 Timothy 4:2

A higher authority is a person or an entity that holds superior power which one with a lower level of power should submit to.

God wants us to submit to higher authorities. You must start practising how to submit yourself to higher authorities.

There are two vital reasons you need to submit to higher authority. The first reason is to avoid the wrath of God; when you don't submit to higher authority, you will attract the judgment of God that will result in destruction/losses. The second reason you need to submit to higher authority is so that your conscience will not be dead.

When you don't submit to a higher authority or you mock people that do so, you are damaging and destroying your conscience unconsciously such that it follows a wrong standard or becomes dead, callous, seared or neutral.

You must understand that your conscience is critical to your spiritual health.

The bible says we should obey and submit ourselves to higher authorities for the sake of our conscience. Most people don't understand this and as a result, they have damaged their conscience to a place that it just allows them to do anything.

Every time you violate an emblem or a symbol of authority, you deaden your conscience a little bit more.

Also, every time you obey a symbol of authority, you awaken your conscience a little bit more so much so that when you come to a place that you need to make a life and death decision in a very short time, your conscience will alert you.

Today, in the body of Christ, people know the voice of many strangers, and this ought not to be.

The Bible says we are sheep as Christians, and sheep don't lead themselves, they follow a leader.

Christians should understand that God has placed the voice of His ministry of "Shepherd" in the ministry and calling of the pastors He gives to us. Some invisible leaders bring divine signals and communication to you and this includes your spirit, the anointing and dreams. Prophecy also shows you divine positions that God is leading you to. It can be a word in a creative form bringing forth what is not there initially. Prophecy can also be in form of revelations, in a way that it gives insight into God's purposes for you.

When you receive a leading that takes you out of God's prophecy, such leading will lead you into error.

One task the devil goes about doing is trying to ensure that believers are deceived and manipulated out of God's plan and purpose for their lives and one channel he (the devil) can use to deceive is prophecy. Don't be a desperate and easy to confuse believer. Always spend quality time with God.

If God has not told you what to do in a particular instance, He expects you to follow a visible godly leader. Imbibe the nature that follows the leader.

When you start practising the principle of following the visible godly leader, it will deliver you from making errors.

It is not just anybody you see that you will follow. You need to follow the right and godly leader. When you follow the right and godly leader, you will be delivered from error. The more you practise following the God-given leaders of the kingdom, the more you won't follow the wrong leader.

GUIDANCE IN UNCERTAINTY (2)

Psalms 23:1-3; Psalms 61:1-4; Judges 7:15

In Judges 7, only Gideon understood what God wanted them to do. You should understand this in your walk with God: divine leading is always a subset of divine order.

If what you received creates something that looks contradictory to the Word of God, go with the Word of God.

You need to understand that in the transmission of instructions to the human mind and understanding, there is the possibility of the introduction of error. When you find yourself in a confusing situation and you want to know which option is the best for you, go with the visible godly leader.

SUBMIT TO GOD'S WILL (1)

Matthew 6:10; 26:39; 42

The primary responsibility of the leaders we have reviewed thus far is to show us the will of God.

If you do anything contrary to any of these leaders, you are out of the jurisdiction of God.

The devil likes to deceive Christians to think they can have their way and still enjoy the best of God. That is not true. You will pay for choosing your way. The first commandment in the bible of Satan is, "do what thou will" and the central theme of God's kingdom is, "let God's will be done." What indicates that we are Christians indeed is not just that we are born again, it is that we live by the will of God.

God doesn't need any man's help in showcasing His might. He is God all by Himself.

As a believer, you need to be confident in the God you are serving at all times. God is still in the business of doing marvellous and amazing things.

The Philistines saw Dagon, their most revered god, fallen upon its face before the ark of the Lord. Wondering if it was by chance, they stood Dagon up the next day. Now the big and vital question to ponder upon is, do you really think the Ark would have fallen? The answer is no!

Christianity is not a discussion; it is an encounter with a living person. You must encounter and establish a living relationship with Jesus before you can participate in and partake of Christianity.

There is a spiritual dimension of God's word that produces a change in your life and brings you nearer and nearer to the glory of God when you have the Spirit of God. That only comes from a relationship with Jesus.

JEHOVAH-NISSI: THE MAN OF WAR (1)

Exodus 14:8-14

The children of Israel saw the chariots of Pharaoh and lost hope.

They were afraid and began to complain because they did not know the ways of the Lord and the God behind the acts. At this point, they chose to die as slaves rather than enter into freedom.

Many people today prefer to continue in their position of servitude under the elements of this world (spiritual and wicked forces of the devil) because they don't know that there is a God that can deliver them.

If you don't know the Lord as the man of war, you will not be able to experience His fighting hands.

Moses knew God as a man of war, which was why he could stand still. [Exodus 14:13-14] God wants you to know His ways, which you can, by hearing and understanding the word of God and by spending time in His presence, praying and communing with Him.

For you to enjoy Jehovah-Nissi's commitment in your life, you need to enter into a genuine relationship with God.

Without a genuine relationship with God, you will not get Him committed to fighting for you when the enemies arise against you like a flood.

The name of the Lord can only work for you when you are in a covenant relationship (and not a superficial relationship) with Him. You need to accept Jesus as your Saviour and Lord and be born again. Jesus said, "No one comes to the Father except through Me." [John 14:6]

This shows us that there is a substantial difference between the peace the world gives and the peace that God gives. A closer look at our world today reveals that there are more prisoners outside the prison than within the prison walls.

It is only the people that God keeps in peace that are safe. Those to whom God appeared as their peace are the ones that have peace indeed.

If you are indeed going to enjoy the peace of God, you will need to keep your mind on God.

Isaiah 26:3 says, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee."

You keep your mind on God by studying and meditating on God's word on a daily basis. Let the word of God fill your mind. Let your mind meditate on the word of God, day and night. It will keep you in the peace of God. When you keep giving your mind to all kinds of information in the world, you will get disturbed here and there.

WALKING IN GOD'S PEACE (3)

Ephesians 2:14-15

Do you sincerely desire to walk in God's peace, then you need to allow the peace of God to rule your heart.

Is there peace in your heart over that decision you are about to take? Pray about it again. When the hand is the hand of Esau and the voice is the voice of Jacob and your heart is not at rest over a matter that you are deciding upon, whether a life partner, a career, a trip, whatsoever it is, you should stay the action until the peace of God returns to your heart upon the matter.

Our anchor scripture today reads: "I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore, choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live."

Foreknowledge is a faculty that belongs only to God. He knows the future before it happens in detail.

For example, God knows everybody that will be saved by surrendering their lives to Christ individually and He also knows every person that will go to hell by rejecting Christ without influencing their decision. Whatever you will become, you have a role to play.

DON'T STRAY FROM DIVINE PATH (1)

Ephesians 3:20 (The Amplified Version)

There are different paths that people follow in life but the plan of God for you is that you will follow the divine path.

If you allow your culture to influence you as a person for example, there will be a path people follow in your culture that might be totally conflicting with the divine path for you.

The same is applicable to your environment, society and so on. There are parents that already have an idea of the profession or career their children must pursue; and it is not as if they got that idea from God. When you don't follow the path God has carved out for you, you will end up in errors.

DON'T STRAY FROM DIVINE PATH (2)

There are individuals that will not marry from a particular tribe or ethnic group not because God told them but because of personal prejudices.

Do not forget that there is a path God has mapped out for every individual. As a parent, you can train your children, but let God show them the path that they should follow in life.

When a person misses his/her destiny path, he/she can be involved in a work but that will not be what God has ordained for him/her. There is a principle of the path to move from where you are to get to where God wants you to be in life.

The person that God will work with must be a person that understands the difference between the holy and the common. Such a person must have high regard for the things of God.

The heart of intractable problems between God and man is the confusion between what is holy and what is common.

When men treat what is holy as common, they are going to have serious trouble with God. Men naturally don't know the difference between the holy and the common, hence God's word is made available for our learning.

In the Old Testament of the Bible, the nation of Israel had a covenant with God. As a result, no nation could stand against or defeat them in battle unless when they sinned.

In the New Testament, God cut a covenant with Jesus, which we are partakers of when we get born again.

When a covenant is entered with the devil, the person that cut the covenant or the group of people that entered that covenant would have a special experience of the covenant, whether positive or negative. - b. people make covenant when they are under oppression and they are desperately in need of deliverance.

God wants every believer to understand the matter of the covenant. A lot of Christians operate in life as if they are not in covenant with God. This is largely due to the ignorance of such people. [Hosea 4:6]

God's covenant takes you from glory to glory. Being born again is what qualifies you to enjoy the above scriptures, even though you may or may not be aware of that. This is a general benefit of the covenant.

There is a particular image that God wants to bring us into and that is the image of Christ and the process to that image is "from glory to glory even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

Anything that reduces a child of God is a contradiction to the covenant. If the devil operates freely in your affairs, you have permitted that. From today, don't allow the devil have his way in your life.

PROMISES OF THE COVENANT (3)

Proverbs 4:18; 2 Corinthians 3:18

The only change that God expects from our lives is from glory to glory. The cloud of glory led Israel in only two directions – UPWARD and FORWARD - and that is the direction of the covenant.

There is a change after a particular image that God is going towards in our lives. It doesn't matter your race, gender or status; there is an image that God is going for. The work God wants to do in our lives is one that will take us higher and higher.

The plan of God for you is too spectacular. Don't settle for less. God has the capacity to bring His promises to pass. Just trust Him.

BE FULLY PERSUADED ABOUT YOUR COVENANT POSITION (1)

Romans 4:21; Romans 8:38-39

Three things always go together when dealing with God: the promise, the persuasion and the performance.

The promise comes from God, the persuasion must occur in the man and the performance must come from God as well.

If you are not persuaded, there won't be a divine performance. Unfortunately, a lot of people are not fully persuaded. You must be fully persuaded as far as your covenant position is concerned. It'll be devastating for you to be persuaded about something wrong and not be persuaded about something right.

Persuasion is what you do for yourself and to yourself by the word of God.

You may be unsure within you but you must allow God prove Himself in your life. If God does not prove Himself, there is no persuasion inside you. Be persuaded about God's promise and covenant for you. The things that concern you are covenant guaranteed.

Paul spoke based on what he's been seeing and what God had done. Paul talked of things that were likely to show their faces, but he was persuaded. God doesn't want us to step into the arena of life without full persuasion.

YOUR COVENANT CONSCIOUSNESS BUILDS ON KNOWLEDGE (1)

Romans 4:20-21

Many of us know more about and pay so much attention to the lies of the devil and his wickedness than we know about and pay attention to the goodness of God.

As a result, we have more confidence in the devil's ability to hurt than in God's ability to help us. That is the problem and it must change.

The bible is full of God's promises and covenant and that must be the object of your concentration. Like Abraham, you must be more persuaded of the promises of God than the reputation of the problem.

God says none shall be barren. It means this report of barrenness is a temporary thing. The word 'temporary' means 'subject to change'.

Once we accept Jesus as our Lord and personal Saviour, everything negative is subject to change. Learn to believe the word of God more than the word(s) of any human being because God cannot lie and He will always ensure that His word comes to pass.

DEVELOP YOUR FAITH (1)

God has called every believer to live by their faith. Even if you are a minister of the gospel, you are supposed to live by your faith in God.

There is a work of faith! Whenever your mind strays to your condition, you must pull it back to your promise and use that promise to correct whatever short-sightedness the devil is throwing at you.

Your action, confession and resistance must be built on the word of promise or prophecy that the LORD has given you. That must be the revelation you carry always! Remember, faith comes by hearing. [Romans 10:17]

Confidence is the bedrock of effective prayer. Without it, you will only mumble words into the air.

One of the greatest attacks of the devil is to steal your confidence before you pray, while you pray or after you pray. A person who loses confidence before prayer will never approach God boldly. Do you pray as one speaking to a living and powerful God or are you only reciting complaints?

CONFIDENCE IS THE TARGET OF SATAN'S ATTACKS (1)

1 Peter 5:8-9, Hebrews 3:14

One of the strategies of the devil is to weaken your confidence in God so that your prayer becomes empty.

If the devil cannot stop you from praying, he will do all he can to ensure that your prayer carries no assurance. That is why Peter warns: "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith..." [1 Peter 5:8-9]

CONFIDENCE MAKES YOU STAND TALL IN PRAYER (1)

2 Timothy 2:13; Hebrews 10:23

One of the greatest pillars for answered prayer is God's faithfulness. The Bible says, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." [2 Timothy 2:13]

That means even when you wobble in faith, God does not wobble in His nature. He remains faithful to His word not because of you, but because of Himself. This is why your confidence in prayer must be built on His faithfulness and not on the strength of your emotions or performance. Sarah received strength to conceive when she judged him faithful who had promised. [Hebrews 11:11]

Confidence in prayer flows from knowing His promises and presenting them back to Him. When you pray the Word, you are not begging God to do something new; you are aligning yourself with what He has already declared.

THE POWER OF ASKING ACCORDING TO GOD'S WILL (1)

John 15:7; James 4:3

The secret to effective prayer is not in the volume of words but in alignment with God's will.

Jesus declared, "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." [John 15:7]

The condition is clear: abiding in Him and letting His Word abide in you. When His Word shapes your desires, your prayers automatically align with His will and answers become inevitable. But when prayer springs only from human wants or fleshly ambition, it loses power before heaven.

John 15:7; James 4:3

James explains why many prayers go unanswered: “Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.” [James 4:3]

God does not finance lust. He will not endorse requests that contradict His purpose or corrupt your soul.

For example, a man asking God to bless his dishonesty in business is praying against divine laws. No matter how long he prays, such prayers will never be answered. This is why you must let the Word of God filter your requests.

THE POWER OF ASKING ACCORDING TO GOD'S WILL (3)

John 15:7; James 4:3

Prayers born from Scriptures are prayers God is already eager to answer. They rest not on emotion but on covenant truth.

Learn to check your motives before you pray. Ask yourself: does this request glorify God or just satisfy me? Is my request consistent with His promises or is it driven by mere carnal desires?

Don't waste energy praying amiss. Anchor your desires in the Word and present them boldly. When the Word rules your asking, you will not only pray effectively but also live in greater harmony with God's will.
