ARE YOU BUILT TO LAST?

Psalms 11:3; Matthew 7:24-25

Every building rests on the strength of its foundation. No matter how tall a building is, it is only as strong as the foundation it is standing on.

Your academic/career pursuit, marriage or spiritual life is only as strong as the foundation on which you are standing. If you have a faulty foundation, now is the best time to fix it.

It is possible to keep burning and shining for God into old age. This can only be possible if you build your life on a solid spiritual and physical foundation. The big question to you now is, how solid are your spiritual and physical foundations? Are you built to last?

NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

2 Corinthians 5:17; Ephesians 2:1-3

The greatest decision a human being can make is to receive Jesus Christ as his/her personal Lord and Saviour.

As a person that is born again, you must know what has happened to you. When you gave your life to Christ, something radical and out of this world happened to you.

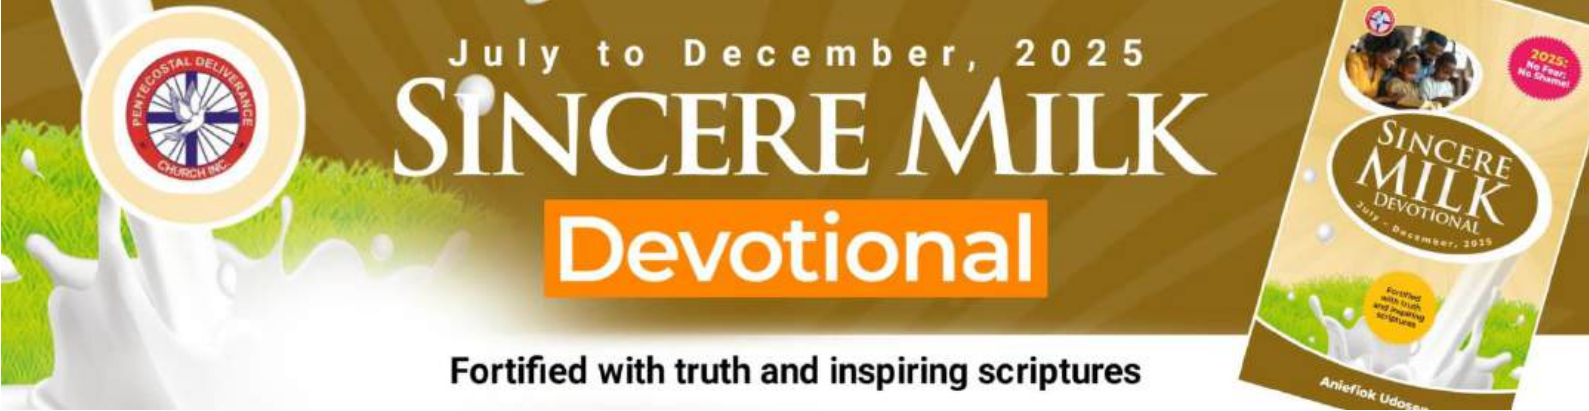

It doesn't matter the biological family you come from or the covenant that binds people in the community you come from. Now that you are born again, you have entered a covenant relationship with Jesus Christ that swallows up every other covenant you have ever had.

CONFRONTING THE DEVIL

Numbers 23:23; Romans 8:11; 2 Corinthians 10:4-6

If you are born again, you will no longer be on the list of human beings that enchantments will work against.

As a true child of God, there is no enchantment against you neither is there any divination against you that should work, but if you don't have this understanding, it will open you up to the devil.

You don't confront the devil out of empty zeal but out of understanding. You need to be filled with understanding because too many people in the church today are full of zeal without understanding. The devil will only be scared of you if Jesus is truly your Lord and Saviour.

PRAYER

I declare that from today henceforth,
no enchantment will work against me

POWER OF CORRECT TITHING

Genesis 14:20; Hebrews 7:2; Malachi 3:10-11

Many people give their tithes without an understanding of what it means. They think they are doing the pastor a favour or helping to pay his salary. Lack of understanding has caused many to become nominal Christians.

The church is full of too many defeated people because of lack of understanding. Study the Word of God until you understand. Start with reading, move to study and then meditate. Ask questions until you understand.

When you tithe correctly, you are honouring God as your source and also protecting yourself from the thief - the devil.

UNDERSTANDING SUCCESS (1)

Genesis 17:5-8; Proverbs 10:4

Once you understand that the Bible says you will be a possessor in the land where you are a stranger, you will succeed more than the citizens anywhere you settle. [Genesis 17:8]

The colour of your skin does not stop you from succeeding anywhere you find yourself. It's your lack of understanding that can stop you. When you have a correct understanding, nobody puts you under.

When you get understanding and you use it the way it is supposed to be used, God will back you up. Accurate understanding will make you outstanding in life.

UNDERSTANDING SUCCESS (2)

John 1:1; Hebrews 3:4

Most Christians start projects by only reading books written by men that can fail. Why don't you start your project(s) the way God wants His people to start their project(s)?

Before you start anything, get a proceeding word from Heaven. Build every confession and activity on that word and let that word be what fuels the atmosphere for the result.

If you involve God in your business affair or any project you want to engage in, you will not fail because He will guide you into all truth. Don't leave God out of your life endeavour. With God, good success is sure.

SUBMIT TO GOD'S WILL (1)

Matthew 6:10

After you have received Jesus Christ as your Lord and personal Saviour, the next action plan is for you to submit to whatever God's will for you may be.

Most Christians know the prayer of faith but not the prayer of commitment. When you say, "Lord, if it is your will...", what you are saying is, "I don't know your will, but I will do it when I know it."

The only will of God that you have not done should be the one you are not aware of. You must understand that it is not everything you will do in the will of God that will be exciting and enjoyable to your flesh.

SUBMIT TO GOD'S WILL (2)

Matthew 26:39-42

As a Christian who really wants to please God, you have to decide to surrender your will to God's, just as Jesus had to do in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Our Lord, Jesus Christ said that the true mark of a disciple is that he/she takes up his/her cross and follows Him daily. [Luke 9:23] It is a daily choice, but the daily choice comes from the foundation that you have laid.

What is the will of God for you? The destination is indeed glorious, but there is a road you will have to walk. There is nothing that God cannot give you, but are you going to give Him what He is asking from you?

FIGHT FOR YOUR FAMILY (1)

Genesis 3:15

God told the devil in our anchor scripture that the seed of the woman shall bruise his head. Bruise here means break his lordship.

When Jacob was going to die [Genesis 49:8-11], he said, "the sceptre shall not depart from Judah." Seeing this, the devil intensified effort, making Judah to sleep with his daughter-in-law so that God's plan could be delayed for generations while he continued to stir up evil to prevent the fulfilment of the prophecy of Jacob.

The devil doesn't want anything good to happen in your family. You must consciously fight for your family and resist him at all cost.

FIGHT FOR YOUR FAMILY (2)

Genesis 3:15; Genesis 25:21

Imagine someone that comes from a family where everybody struggles because their ancestors made covenants with the devil. Members of such a family will forever be indebted to the devil unless someone comes to redeem them by the blood of Jesus.

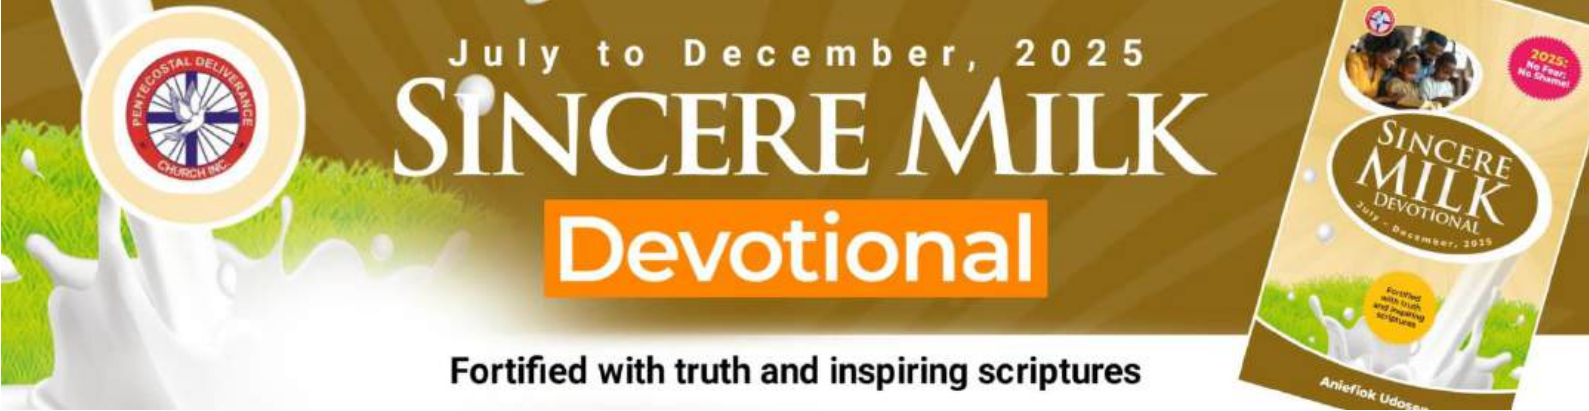

When a person gets born again in such a family, God's plan is redemption. Such a person cannot afford to play games in church or complain about God's demand for his/her training as a deliverer of his/her generation.

SONSHIP (1)

Romans 8:14-16

As believers, our relationship with God is in two dimensions: with Jesus and with the Holy Ghost.

Our relationship with Jesus as our Saviour brings us into the family of God, making us become sons of God.

Our position as sons of God is spiritual. Though we still bear our natural fathers' names and possess the physical features of our parents, when we become born again, the nature of God takes over inside us. It may not affect our physical appearance, but it overhauls our spiritual genetics and the totality of our manifestations in life.

SONSHIP (2)

Romans 8:14-16; 2 Peter 1:2-4

Your position as a child of God makes you a prince of the kingdom of heaven and makes God your Father.

However, there are things that the position makes available but may not affect your life until the Holy Spirit steps in. Through the Holy Spirit, the things of God begin to show forth in the life of a believer so much that one could say, "Oh! That person is a child of God!"

You need to understand that your relationship with the Holy Spirit is what takes your sonship through Jesus Christ from the level of what you just profess with your mouth to what affects your life.

THE HOLY SPIRIT AND YOU (1)
Romans 8:7-14

A lot of Christians today relate wrongly with the Holy Spirit because they lack accurate understanding of who He is. This is quite unfortunate and serious.

Many believers think of the Holy Spirit as an errand boy. Some believers have probably told Him, "Holy Spirit, go and do this thing for me!" That is never the appropriate way to relate with the Holy Spirit.

After salvation, the Holy Spirit does not just bring our sonship into manifestation, He guides us all the way. We must learn to give due respect to Him. He is the commander-in-chief and not a tool for use.

When the Holy Spirit comes into our lives, He comes in as the Commander-in-Chief. He does not take instructions or counsel from us, but it is the other way around – He gives us instructions and counsel.

Some Christians like to relate to the Holy Spirit as a weapon only. At every opportunity to pray, they shout, “Holy Ghost fire! Holy Ghost fire!”

The Holy Ghost is not a weapon. He is the Commander-in-Chief. He is a Person. He comes in as our Commander-in-Chief to give us the strategy and instructions for a victorious Christian life.

The entire Body of Christ is made up of local churches. A local church is one that is locatable and localized somewhere.

Matthew 10:38-39

The Lordship of Jesus is the heart of Christianity! The Christian that God will endow with physical and spiritual wealth is the one that has first given up ownership of himself/herself to God - the one who has made Jesus Lord over his/her life.

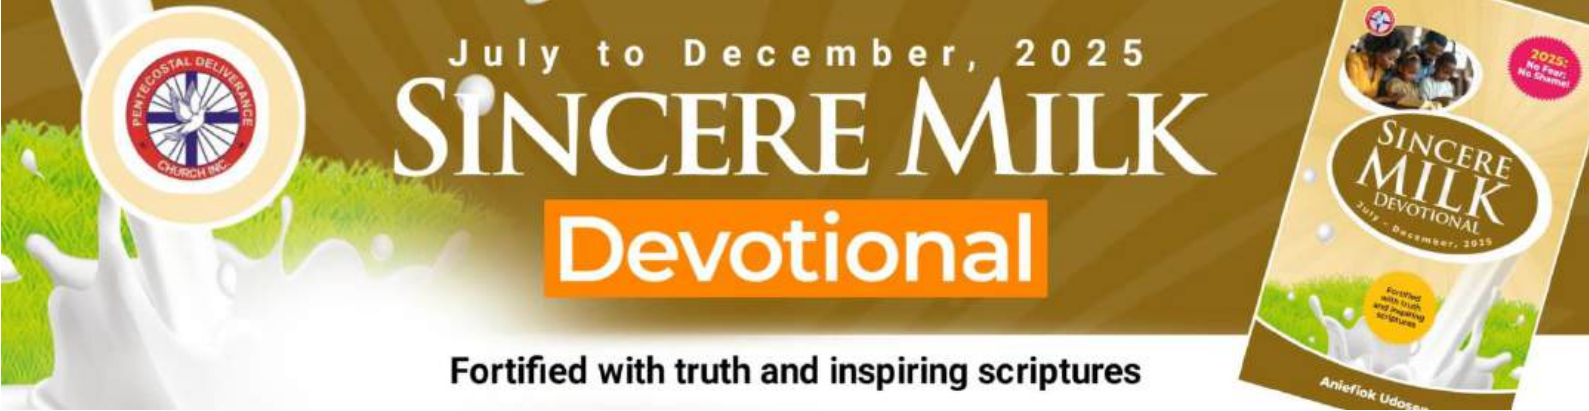

Let the devil know that there is nothing he can do that will cause you to stop loving God. This is the point at which your judgment of God's goodness is no longer based on what He does or does not do for you.

The light afflictions in this context are the things that affect our outward man; the things that the outward man interacts with that changes him.

The word “worketh” is from the Greek word “energeia” which means “working like the engine to produce a result.”. It can be likened to starting the engine of a car. There is something inside the car that rolls and generates power to move the car.

The word “scripture” in our anchor reading today is called graphé in Greek, which means the WRITTEN WORD OF GOD.

The scripture (written word of God) is given to us to encounter the Living Word (Jesus) as we study it.

The scripture is inspired by God and is highly profitable for doctrine, reproof, correction and instruction. Through the scripture, we can review our actions and align our lives to the will of God. Spending quality time to study and meditate on the scripture will result in you growing spiritually and otherwise.

EXPRESSIONS OF GOD’S WORD (3)

Romans 10:17; Hebrews 4:12

In the book of Romans 10:17, the bible says, “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.” The word of God used here refers to RHEMA which is THE SPOKEN WORD.

Faith comes first by the rhema, knowledge comes as you study the written word of God and fellowship comes as you commune with the Living Word.

The place of the spoken word cannot be overemphasized. When you open up your heart to the spoken word of God, you will experience tremendous miracles and mighty release of God’s power into your life.

CONFESS GOD'S WORD (1)

Proverbs 11:11; Mark 11:23

When you begin to declare the word of God, it opens the door of your life to divine operations and at the same time arrests satanic operations.

Confessing God's word sets in motion natural activities under angelic influences to accomplish desired results in your life.

When you begin to speak the word of God like "goodness and mercy shall follow me", it charges the atmosphere of your life and angels begin to influence men to act under the influence of goodness and mercy for you. Stop confessing negative words over your life, family and children. Start confessing God's word.

SPIRIT OF FAITH (1)

2 Corinthians 4:13; 2 Peter 1:1

If you are born again, you are no longer ordinary because you have the spirit of faith.

The devil wants to bring you to a position where he can weaken that faith. His goal is to make the spirit of faith in you stale, stiff or starved. That same spirit of faith that made David overcome Goliath is in you.

Joseph had so many struggles and was a three-time-sold slave in a strange land. He had that same spirit of faith and in the space of thirteen years, he became the prime minister in a strange land. Don't allow fear rule your heart. Instead, let faith rule your heart.

Hold on to the word of God, put His promises in your mouth and internalize the language of faith.

There is no situation you are facing that faith in God cannot change. You need to renew the spirit of faith because if you don't service it, it becomes stale and stiff, just like the engine of a car. Remember, without faith, it is impossible to please God. [Hebrews 11:6]

SPIRIT OF FAITH (3)

Hebrews 11:1-6; Amos 3:3

The first and primary reason for faith is to enable us know how to walk with God. Most quarrels between friends occur not necessarily out of hatred but because one person did something the other detests or pressed the wrong button.

The friends you enjoy the most are people who do things you like, and you keep walking together. Likewise, what keeps you and God walking together is faith.

The purpose of faith and the power of God is to change the circumstances we don't want but are facing us, and if they will change, we must agree with God so He can change them.

SPIRIT OF FAITH (4)

1 John 5:8; Hebrews 11:6

Many believers make utterances that don't agree with God's word just because such utterances are socially acceptable.

The spirit of faith helps us to speak, see, work and behave in a certain way that is pleasing to God. A father is happy with a child who does everything he wants. This applies to our relationship with God too. God is happy when we live by faith.

Declaring our belief in God is declaring that our God is alive and He makes His word real to us because we are confident in it. Don't lose faith in God.

Do you know that when you find yourself in precarious situations, the testimonies God has previously given you serve as a reminder and source of comfort that those testimonies can be repeated if you would believe them?

You need to understand that there is another dimension to life which is beyond human understanding and effort. No matter the situation, let your faith be on the rise.

Imagine someone has a prognosis of an incurable disease. Worrying is not going to remove it except contributing to killing the person even quicker.

When medical science has come to its wit's end and the disease can't be removed, such a person should find something that can remove it, which is the word of God, and that is where God comes in.

The subject of wealth is vital. God wants His children to be wealthy but the devil desires that God's people suffer lack and end up as beggars.

The Bible speaks about money more than many other subjects. The Lord Jesus Christ spoke about wealth, finances and money matters more than many other subjects that we focus our minds on today.

FORMS OF WEALTH (1)

Proverbs 10:4; Ecclesiastes 7:12

Wealth exists in diverse forms. In today's lesson, we shall consider one form: cash.

Cash is the lowest form of wealth. If cash is the only form of wealth you know, it will be the only wealth form you will respect and pursue.

In the hierarchy of wealth forms, cash is the least. The norm in life is that the higher commands the lower. Every higher form of wealth will command and control the lower form, and as a result, cash is the errand boy of all the other forms of wealth. USEFUL WEALTH MODEL (1)

1 Corinthians 9:11-12; Romans 15:4

Some people pick some of Paul's statements as recorded in the New Testament, such as "we are poor, yet making many rich" and emphasize on "we are poor" but neglect "yet making many rich."

When Paul said, "we are poor, yet making many rich", he meant that there must be something flowing from a minister of the gospel (if he is genuine) that can make many rich both physically and spiritually.

Our Lord Jesus Christ during His time on this earth hated wastage.

This can be seen practically in the Bible when He said to the disciples after feeding the five thousand, "Gather up now the fragments (the broken pieces that are left over), so that nothing may be lost and wasted." [John 6:12, The Amplified Version of the Holy Bible]

It is quite disappointing in this age and time that most Christians do not hate wastage. There is a lot of wealth in fragments - fragments of food, money, etc. and God wants us to harness such wealth. May you not be part of those promoting waste.

DEVELOP HATRED FOR WASTE (2)

Luke 15:13-15

You may be at a level now where you should not purchase new clothes but keep the ones you have neat and clean. Be happy at that level while trusting God for lifting.

Jesus hates wastage. Don't spend money on things you don't really need.

In Deuteronomy 28:5, the Bible says God will bless you in your basket and your storehouses. Your basket is your salary; your storehouses are your bank accounts. God is posed to bless you in both. When you develop the attitude of wastage, you will end up being a beggar and loser later on in life.

CALL TO EQUAL SACRIFICE (1)

Luke 21:1-4

Jesus hates unequal sacrifice. Greed and unequal sacrifice can be linked together. Whatever a man cannot give has become his god. What a person cannot walk away from is the same thing the devil will use to take that person away from God.

Jesus calls us to equal sacrifice but not equal giving. The attitude of Jesus toward this is seen when He went to the temple and sat to observe people as they gave their offerings.

Even though Jesus saw the wealthy cast much out of their abundance, He judged that the widow who gave her last, which was only two mites, gave more than all of them put together.

Jesus never excuses anyone else from participating in the divine assignment. It is a wrong doctrine to excuse yourself or anyone from participating in divine assignment by virtue of age or social status.

As a Christian, you need to develop the attitude of this is my divine assignment, and I will contribute my all to it. Jesus did not stop the woman from giving but commended her for giving more than others put together.

AVOID EXECUTIVE MINDSET (1)

Deuteronomy 8:10-18

There is great danger associated with having an executive mindset as far as wealth creation is concerned.

Executive mindset is the mindset that makes the next generation destroy completely what the first generation laboured to create and build.

The executive mindset will also make a person who has been living in a house provided by the government to remain in the government quarters without building his/her house. Such a person hasn't learnt how to handle life to create wealth since the essentials have been provided by the government.

You should not allow any system to make you a permanent slave, unknowingly. One of the characteristics of a slave is that he/she does not think. Since feeding, housing and basic needs are taken care of, all a slave is expected to do is work.

A person with an executive mindset does not have creative thinking to solve life's issues because he/she has been so used to others solving his/her problems for him/her. Avoid executive mindset.

In the Old Testament, the Lord instructed that they must not put yeast in the bread. [Exodus 12:18] In the New Testament, God told us that the yeast is hypocrisy, symbolizing insincerity in our walk with God. [Luke 12:1]

So whatever is used to represent the body of Jesus and the blood of Jesus during the communion is just a representation. What is important is that they are used in accordance with the directive given in the bible and the power of God will be evident.

Psalms 105:37 talked about how the children of Israel left Egypt as a multitude and none fell sick among them. They were all in health because Jehovah Rapha was with them.

There is no gain to Heaven when we are not in health. There is provision in the scriptures for you to be in health perpetually. Divine health is your right as a child of God. In Exodus 15:26, God said He is our immunity. In James 5:14, He said He is working out divine healing for us.

Sicknesses and diseases are products of the fall of man. The fall of man brought the law of sin and death into operation. However, through Christ Jesus, another law was set in motion: the law of the Spirit of life. [Romans 8:2]

Prevailing prayer is that prayer that enforces God's will. Enforcing the will of God on the earth can majorly be achieved through prayer.

We pray to enforce God's will on earth as it is in heaven. The will of God is clear in heaven; there is no contention in heaven or any contrary opinion.

However, because of the fall of Adam and the subsequent transfer of the legal authority that God gave man to the devil, man has to pray to know God's will and then enforce it on the earth. This means that the role of prayers cannot be overemphasized.

PREPARING FOR MARRIAGE (1)

Ephesians 5:25-28; Genesis 2:18-25

Marriage is an institution ordained by God for man. So many people go into this institution with so many expectations from their spouses without detailed preparation, forgetting that when you fail to prepare, you prepare to fail.

Many homes are under fire a few weeks after marriage because there was no deposit of adequate preparation. Just as the answer of the Lord will only come to a prepared heart, so will you enjoy your spouse if you have prepared for him or her very well.

Since marriage is not for a while but "till death do us part", it's worth preparing for.

PRAYER

Lord, I declare that my marriage will work

PREPARING FOR MARRIAGE (2)

Ephesians 5:25-28; Genesis 2:18-25

God designed marriage to be enjoyed, but you may have to endure marriage if you don't prepare for it.

The Bible says, "He who finds a wife finds a good thing and obtains favour from the Lord." [Proverbs 18:22] This simply means that marriage is meant to bring favour, goodness, increase, multiplication and solutions.

It is the lack of preparation that makes a man or woman file for divorce or wish his/her spouse dead. Frustration is not part of God's design for marriage. The blueprint of the Lord for marriage (as seen in Genesis 2:18) is not evil, pain, frustration or regret.

PRAYER

Pray that God will sweeten your marriage and make it strong to fulfil divine purpose

PREPARING FOR MARRIAGE (3)

Luke 22:31-32; Judges 4:4

There are certain essential preparations you need to make before marriage. One of such preparations is you need to pray pre-emptive prayers.

There is power in praying ahead. Since God is the author of marriage, you must engage in consistent prayer to unravel the mystery behind your spouse in order to enjoy him/her. Pray ahead to prevent future crises and pains and birth the divine plans and purposes of God for your home.

Pray for accuracy of choices, wisdom to build together and the power to conceive and bring forth without any complications.

Another essential task to do before marriage is that you must go through thorough deliverance ministration.

Make sure you see your pastor for deliverance ministration. Ancestral flows get stronger and multiply down the line. Negative ancestral flows and occurrences must be exposed and opened to ministration.

Marriage is a bridge that makes spiritual experiences flow into either of the spouses. Make sure you do a proper background check of your ancestral and natural heritages and deal with everything negative otherwise, your marriage could be badly affected.

PREPARING FOR MARRIAGE (5)

Proverbs 31:10-31; Judges 4:4

The third essential task to do before entering into marriage is to master how to multitask. Deborah was both a wife and a national leader.

So many people come under pressure because of the demands of marriage. Often times, they are not prepared for it and so when such pressures come, they are not able to manage the pressures. This often results in quarrels, frustrations or even disagreements.

You should be able to combine house chores with your career, destiny activities and family's well-being. Remember, Deborah was a prophetess, wife and judge.

PREPARING FOR MARRIAGE (6)

Amos 3:3; Matthew 19:5

If your marriage will work smoothly, you must learn to accept each other's parents and families.

The brother must protect the sister from in-laws' influence and the sister must learn to relate very well with the in-laws.

Responsibilities to each other's family must be properly discussed before marriage. As much as possible, don't encourage family members to live with you in the early years of your marriage. This sometimes affects your intimacy and you may end up not knowing each other very well. Also, be balanced when it comes to taking decisions regarding relatives.

The area of finance is also another very critical aspect when it comes to preparing for marriage.

Plan wisely for your wedding and avoid going into debt. Save for the future and prioritize your spending.

Do your wedding on a budget that you can afford. Your wedding doesn't have to be too elaborate. Don't spend carelessly on the wedding ceremony as there are bills to be paid after the ceremony. A wedding is a one-day event; marriage is for a lifetime. Don't try to impress anyone because you will be the one to bear the pain alone when things go wrong.

PREPARING FOR MARRIAGE (8)

Amos 3:3; Proverbs 4:1-5

Another key issue when it comes to preparing for marriage is that the brother and the sister must prepare to be under the same mentor, pastor and spiritual covering.

A man who has no spiritual father is an endangered man; a lady should run from such a man. Both the man and the woman must be under the same sound, called man of God whom both of them will submit to in the marriage.

Sound spiritual fathers take us farther in the divine programme. Ensure that you have a sound spiritual father you both submit to.

Prayerfully determine the number of children you will have. Plan on the spacing too. As a sister, start your confession of faith for conception and delivery from courtship.

Also, plan for who will help you nurse them in the early periods of delivery. Prayerfully plan about the person you will involve. Make sure you are not exposed to counsels from unsaved family members. The life and destiny of your children should not be joked with.

ADAM-PROTOTYPE FOR MALES (1)

Genesis 2:15, 18, 22

God planted a garden eastward in Eden and put Adam there.
God settled him in his place.

One problem common to some people who never found their destiny and never broke forth into destiny was that they started getting into relationships before they found out where their place is in God.

God's plan is to tell a man where he is supposed to be, what he is supposed to do and where to go. God then brings a wife into the man's life who will join him to go where He (God) sends him, not the wife telling him where he is supposed to go.

Parents must know the kind of training they must give their sons. Before a son is released into life, he must have been brought up to master femininity so that he is not controlled.

Train your son not to be a bully. Also train him not to be one who is easily manipulated.

You need to train your son(s) to be focused, strong and stable. Many men are receiving twistedness instead of assistance from their wives. Remember, it was after Adam was established in these that God said it was not good for him to live alone and brought a woman into his life.

LESSONS FROM ESTHER'S LIFE (1)

Esther 4:14; Psalms 91:14

God purposefully brought Esther to the King's palace as a single lady to replace Vashti so that she could be well-positioned for the fulfilment of her destiny as the saviour of Israel, which she needed to do as a married person.

Esther had received the training that she would need to function in that assignment as a single lady under the custody of Mordecai.

The reason some women don't continue into a destined marriage after they get married is that they have transferred their allegiance from God to their husbands and that is an error that you must avoid as a lady.

Esther 4:14; Psalms 91:14

The purpose of your marriage should be to enhance the fulfilment of the plan of God for your life, not for you and your husband to form a team against the Holy Ghost to do your wish on the earth.

Esther could have teamed up with the King to destroy the Jews. The love of your heart should be set on God and His purpose.

It is a misplaced priority to set your affection on a man before setting your affection on God and His purpose for you. Don't be possessed by carnal love because it will ensnare you; you will sell yourself out and you will still not have the fulfilment that you want in that marriage.

Ruth, though a single woman and widow, took just one decision on who she would follow.

In different places in the Bible, people have been called to answer the question, who is on the Lord's side? [Exodus 32:26]

Who are you following? Whose counsels determine the decisions you make? That you attend the meetings of a man of God does not mean you're following him.  - b. She picked up an assignment and was committed to it: There was no way Boaz would have seen her if she stayed at home. Boaz didn't marry her based on the recommendations of people but was attracted to her when he saw her gleaning on the field.

Marriage was not primarily made for sex; sex is only a benefit of marriage.

Imagine for a minute what would happen if one of the partners in a marriage had something happen to him or her that makes it impossible to have sex anymore. Should they get divorced? Until you demystify sex, you will keep getting into trouble because of it.

Some people say, “well, the reason for marriage is to have children.” Some people have children scattered in different countries they have travelled to and cannot identify all the children yet, they are not married. Marriage is more than sex and child bearing.

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12; Psalms 112:1-3

Today, we shall consider the law of triangle. The law of triangle is hinged upon the word of God in Psalms 112.

The triangle is made up of the man and his wife at either side of the triangle and God at the triangle's apex.

The husband and the wife must recognize that God is very important when it comes to their marriage. When God is invited into a marriage, He knows how to turn bitter situations into sweet situations. With God, no matter the challenge that comes, the husband and the wife can overcome. Your marriage can work better if you allow God help you.

This is a very interesting and powerful law which you must never violate. God created you and your spouse differently and you need to understand, respect and celebrate the differences between the two of you in order to enjoy your marriage.

Men and women are not the same. We are different in creation and roles and God wants us to celebrate our differences. For instance, men report matters, whereas women share. Your partner will never be you and you will never be your partner.

Still on the law of differences, you will come to see that men reason logically and often don't allow emotions guide them when taking decisions whereas women often want to take decisions emotionally.

Scientifically, as children grow and develop, the right side of the brain (which controls logic) keeps growing in male while the left side (which controls feeling, emotions and so on) stops growing while for the female, the left side keeps growing and the right side stops growing.

Love means much to a woman while achievements mean more to a man. You must understand these differences and not exploit each other with it.

Violating the law of differences can lead to divorce. A woman is not always so concerned with achievements.

A woman can easily say, “My dear, I love you, we have each other. It doesn't matter whether your shoe has holes, whether you have a tie or not, at least we have each other and we will stay together.” A man is not satisfied with that; he wants to be sure he's achieving something. Adapting does not include adapting to sin. A born-again wife should talk to her born-again husband when he commits sin and not adapt to him.

The same also applies to a born-again husband drawing the wife's attention to something she did wrong. This action should be done in love and the erring partner should be made to understand the impact such sin could have on the family in the long run.

However, where it is a matter of a preference for a meal or a way of doing things that doesn't amount to sin, the Bible requires that both parties should adapt.

Pinciples are basic generalization that is accepted as true and can be used as basis for reasoning or conduct.

A lot of persons today don't understand God and how He operates. God is co-ordinated in all He does. One vital characteristic you must know today about God is that everything He does is principle-based.

Human beings look for methods because we deal with the application side but God communicates with us through principles. As believers, we should be desperate to learn, understand and master the principles of God's kingdom.

POWER OF A SOUND MIND (2)

Romans 12:2; 2 Timothy 1:7

To have a sound mind is to come to a place that you can tell your mind not to focus on the negative but rather, on the positive.

You can get to a place where the spirit of a sound mind can take over your mind. That is the place God wants you to be as His beloved child.

When symptoms come into your body, as long as you are thinking about those symptoms, they would be there. Immediately you remove your mind from those symptoms and begin to think about what God's word says, the good outcome you are expecting will come to manifestation in your life.

PRAYER

Pray and receive the spirit of a sound mind

ANOINTING INHIBITOR (1)

Psalms 139:23-24; 1 Samuel 16:6-7

There are things that drive God away from a person's life and once such things are found in your life, you cannot qualify for God's anointing.

There were things that God saw in Saul that made God regret making him king. Saul was not a sinner in the sense of committing fornication or other sins we often consider grave.

Saul was one of the finest Jewish products of Judaism. But there was something in his heart that caused God to withdraw from him. If the anointing of God will manifest in your life, you must eliminate anointing inhibitors.

ANOINTING INHIBITOR (2)

Genesis 4:3-5; Isaiah 66:1-2

From the book of Genesis 4, we see that the two sons of Adam brought sacrifices to God, one was accepted and the other was rejected.

It was not because of the substance of their sacrifices, even though some people have said it was because Cain brought vegetables and Abel brought animal that had blood. No, it had nothing to do with that because they brought the products of their work.

The reason for Cain's rejection and Abel's acceptance was simply the state of their hearts. God focuses on the heart and not the stature of a person.

GOD ANOINTS SONSHIP (1)

1 Samuel 16:11-13; Luke 3:21-22

Every time we gather as God's people, God is looking for somebody to anoint. Can God see you as the right candidate for His anointing?

God looks for and anoints sonship. God does not look for titles, accomplishments or brilliance; He looks for sonship.

The question God asks as He goes around looking for 'anointable' materials is, "are you a son?" When God sees a son, He puts the oil on him. He doesn't put His anointing on any other person except a son. You need to really work on yourself so that you can qualify for sonship.

test me and know my thoughts

GOD ANOINTS SONSHIP (2)

1 Samuel 16:11-13; Luke 3:21-22

The Kingdom of God is a Kingdom of father and son. God is the Father of the family and what He is earnestly looking for is sonship.

Dathan, Korah and Abiram qualified themselves by their self-chosen process but God said He had not chosen them. He had not called them His sons.

If someone goes to church as a new member and he is a gifted musician but does not want to become a part of the structure there, then he is not a son. True sons anywhere they find themselves, key into sonship and become a blessing there.

PRAYER

Lord, help me to be sonship compliant.

I will be take-able, bendable and send-able

TEST OF SONSHIP (1)

1 Samuel 16:11-13

Every anointing signifies the successful completion of a phase in God's programme for you. Every time God anointed people in the Bible, it was a mark of a successfully concluded phase.

God had rejected the brothers of David. It was Goliath that revealed that they were not anointed. If you have not passed the test of God, don't let men promote you.

If you have not passed God's test, don't deceive yourself. You will meet with 'a Goliath' one day that will reveal the truth. Work on yourself otherwise, you will be exposed and embarrassed.

help me to pass the test of sonship

TEST OF SONSHIP (2)

1 Samuel 16:11-13

The so-called soldiers of Israel went into hiding for the fear of Goliath. It was David, a shepherd boy that confronted Goliath.

Saul didn't ask which military school David attended. He asked for whose son David was. The kingdom of God rests on sonship and not on titles conferred on a person by men.

The first thirty years of Jesus' life was a test of His sonship under a physical man - Joseph the carpenter. Jesus stayed in the house of Joseph and Mary and served as a son. He did not quarrel with Joseph and Mary, His earthly parents. The glory of God rests on sonship.

TEST OF FAITHFULNESS (1)

Luke 16:10-12

There are three tests to pass if you will enjoy God's faithfulness.
They are:

- the test of little things
- the test of faithfulness in unrighteous mammon (monetary issues)
- the test of faithfulness in another man's thing

For you to pass the test of faithfulness to God, you will need to be proven in the areas mentioned above. If you are not faithful in little, you will not be faithful in much. God is not looking for unfaithful people. He is looking for people whose hands He can commit things of His kingdom. Can God trust you with Kingdom assets?

the test of faithfulness

TEST OF FAITHFULNESS (2)

Luke 16:10-12

God doesn't commit His precious things to people He has not tested. Until God tests you, He cannot trust you with His treasures.

You must prove faithful in the unrighteous mammon - monetary issues. Most people fail this test. They lack discipline when it comes to money matters.

A lot of persons have misappropriated as well as stolen public and church funds put in their custody. They see nothing wrong with it. When you engage in stealing or abusing public or church funds, you attract the wrath and distrust of God.

GRACE - DIVINE DONATION

2 Peter 1:3; Isaiah 61:1-3

The supernatural ability or capacity to do what you are naturally unable to do is called grace.

The difference between natural ability and grace is that natural ability is acquired while grace is donated to a person by God.

Grace comes with the calling of God. A naturally shy person can climb the pulpit to preach and because of grace, the anointing of God clothes him/her and he/she becomes another person such that even people that know him/her to be shy are amazed at what God will use him/her to do. There is no limit to what you can do when grace is involved.

TWO ENTRANCES: DIFFERENT EXPERIENCES AND EXPECTATIONS (1)

Revelation 12:7-12

Satan entered the world (earth) informally. The Bible says that for his act of rebellion, he was thrown down from heaven. Hence, he became an illegal occupant of the earth.

When he came into the earth, the announcement of his arrival came with fear and trepidation. Revelation 12:12b says, “Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.”

From the time of his entrance, the earth has witnessed chaos and all kinds of troubles - death, sickness, hardship, hatred etc.

TWO ENTRANCES: DIFFERENT EXPERIENCES AND EXPECTATIONS (2)

Revelation 12:7-12

Satan's entrance to the earth is the worst nightmare the earth has ever witnessed from creation.

God's man (Adam) in the garden became Satan's first victim and by extension, every man born after the order of Adam is plunged into this quagmire.

Man lost his dominion and most importantly, his relationship with God to the extent that he ran away from the presence of God but thanks be to God, the story didn't end that way! God showed up as a master strategist and brought sanity back to His creation.

Luke 2:4-14

There's another entrance that brought joy and peace to man and the entire earth. This is the entrance that is celebrated today as Christmas - the birth of our Lord and Saviour.

Jesus entered the world formerly through the normal channel of entry unlike Satan. The day Jesus was born, the announcement was heart lifting and soul warming.

It was a grand entrance with hope, joy, life, restoration and refreshment. This one entrance is like a magic wand that has changed the negative narrative that Satan's entrance brought. [John 10:10]

1. be born again. This is necessary because Satan corrupted the first birth. [John 3:1-7]
 2. not go back to darkness. [Matthew 2:12]
 3. offer yourself and substance in worship continually to God, [Romans 12:1-2; Matthew 2:11], follow His star (leading) and not the leading of men. [Matthew 2:12]
 4. walk in the spirit. [Galatians 5:16]
 5. know the word of God and live by it on a daily basis. [Matthew 4:4]

GROW FROM INSIDE (1)

2 Corinthians 3:18

You don't correct misconception of your identity by argument; you correct such misconception by the results and functions that flow out of your life according to your genuine identity.

People may make a mistake about who you really are. They may underrate you and call you small or equate you with things based on what surrounds you.

Be rest assured that what is inside you is what will correct that misconception; argument will never correct it. The truth is that no one argues with results, and the results of our lives are based on what is inside us.

Lord, help me to grow substance from within

GROW FROM INSIDE (2)

Philippians 2:13; 2 Corinthians 3:18

If you have greatness and great things inside you, your results are likely to be great. However, if you are small inside, even if men misjudge and think you are big, the smallness inside you will give you away - it is only a matter of time.

Mistaken identity cannot be corrected by argument; it is corrected by the flows that ensue from your inside.

Spend more time to develop, decorate and load yourself up inside. See to it that you carry great substance inside of you. Don't be an empty vessel with no deep or real substance. Do all you can to develop yourself inside.

YOU BECOME WHAT YOU BEHOLD (1)

Isaiah 51:1-2; Jeremiah 1:11-12

One truth you need to know is that you will eventually become what you are looking at (focusing on).

Whatever and whoever you are consistently looking at or looking on today is what you will become tomorrow. Your vision today is critical to what you can and will become tomorrow.

If you keep looking at the wrong things and continue to see yourself in the wrong light, you will become that wrong picture. God gives visions and dreams to give you a picture and image in your spirit so that you will keep looking at that and eventually become what He has purposed for you.

YOU BECOME WHAT YOU BEHOLD (2)

2 Corinthians 3:18

The devil also gives people strange dreams and visions to pervert what they should become under God, but you can always cancel such negative visions and dreams.

Keep looking at the God-given dreams and visions you have received from God; receive them, activate them, keep seeing that God-ordained future in your spirit and nurture it until it becomes a reality.

Joseph had dreams from God. He kept those dreams in his spirit and nurtured them until his brothers came to bow to him many years later in accordance with the dream he had. He never allowed their hatred deter him.

Acts 26:19; Jeremiah 1:11-12

Do you have dreams and visions from God? If you don't, pray to God for one. Take decisions with vision in mind as Joseph did. Receive training for it and you will eventually become what God has ordained you to be.

Don't look at ladies' chests and backs - you will only become an adulterer that way. Don't focus on a guy's broad chest and built muscles - you will only end up paying attention to vain things.

Look at pure things and your destiny will become real. Never forget, you become what you behold.
